

Directions to the Orchard Learning Resource Centre and the Eton-Myers Collection

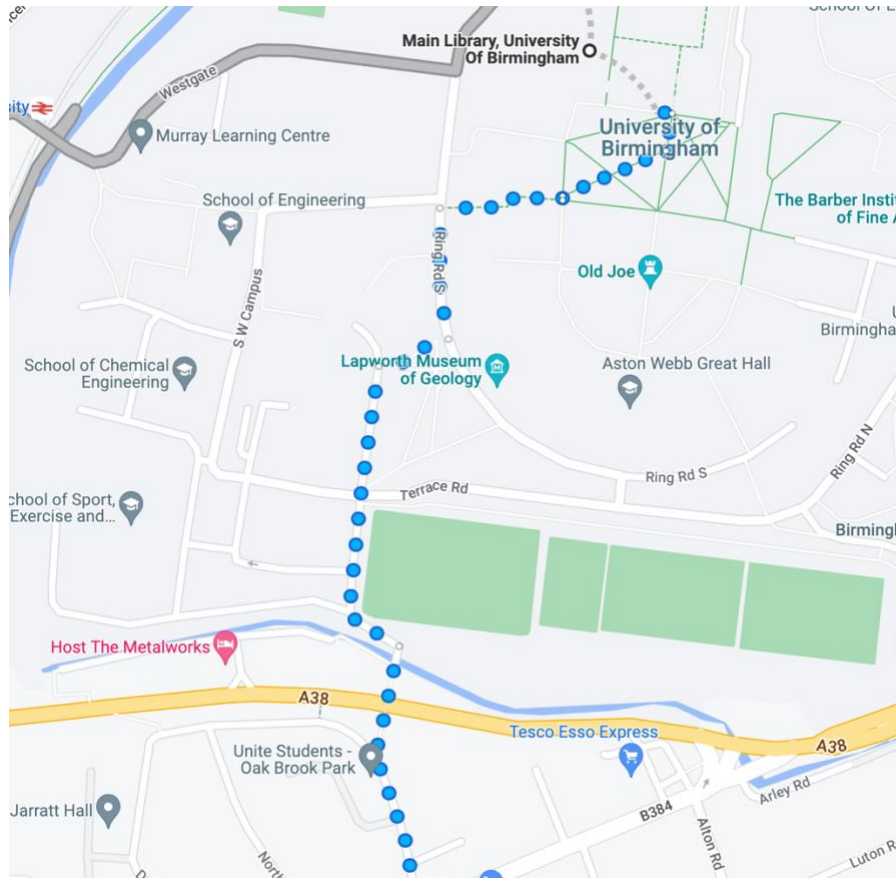

Walking from University of Birmingham Main Library (approx. 32 min):

- Walk south from the Main Library, turn left and walk under the building. The Law Building and Frankland Building should be on your left and the University Centre on your right.
- Turn left onto Ring Road.
- After the Old Gym turn onto the walking paths toward the sport fields.

Paths:

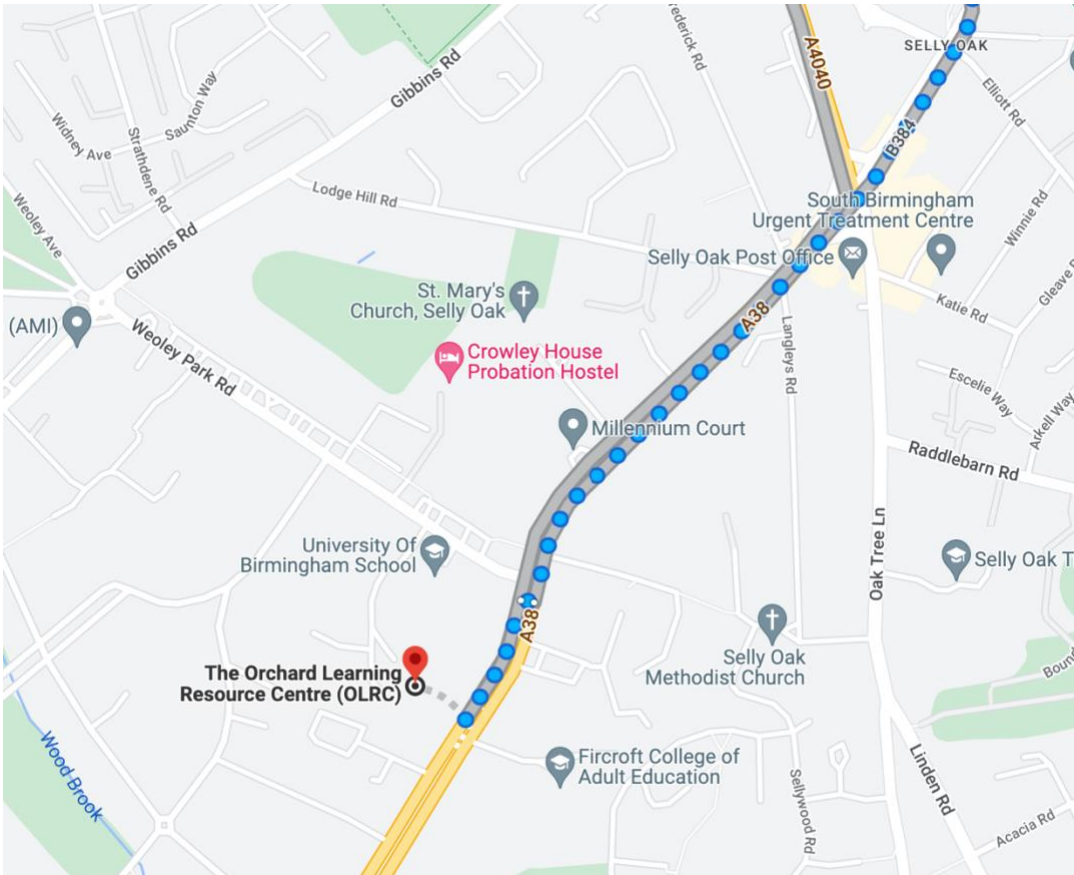

- Cross Aston Webb Blvd (A38) and follow Grange Road.

- Turn right onto Bristol Road
- Follow Bristol Road (You should pass Selly Oak Station and Sainsbury's)
- Once you pass University of Birmingham School, the Orchard Learning Resource Centre will be on the left just behind the school. There is a crossing out front and a sign. The building itself is set back off the road.

Entrance to Orchard Learning Resource Center:

- Follow the signs and go through the double glass doors. You'll be asked to use your student ID card to enter the library. Someone from Birmingham Egyptology will be there to welcome you!

See the whole route here:

